ITALY'S DOWAGER HONORED

In honor of the birthday of Margherita, the Queen Dowager of Italy, widow of the late King Humbert, the Italian cruiser Elba yesterday afternoon was decorated from bow to stern with flags and bunting. The entire ship wore a festive appearance, which was enhanced by music and a reception to Honolulu townfolk.

Owing to the cruiser being moored at the naval dock, no salute was fired during the day in honor of the queen, but her health was drunk in well filled bumpers of champagne and punch.

The natty cruiser was handsomely draped and the effect disclosed the artistic temperament of the officers. The quarterdeck from the mizzen gangway was covered with a tent of flags and the slides enclosed, thus giving the interior a gorgeous color effect. The canopy canvas was concealed from view by flags, some of which were extremely odd in design, and all rich in color. The display of flags of various nations was probably the finest ever shown here in recent years.

The brass bells, binnacles and stanchions were prettily wound with malle studded with carnations, with interweavings of bunting. One of the most artistic effects was the winding of the big guns with red and white pennants, the muzzles being locked by peaceful looking bouquets of carnations and malle, instead of the warlike brass-mounted tompons.

The refreshment table was decorated with malle and blossoms and bore delicacies in the rich silver service of the vessel. A huge cut-glass bowl was filled with punch.

The officers were on the qui vive, and, possessing an excellent command of English, were capital entertainers. The guests, who comprised a large contingent of society folk and officials of the Territory, army and navy, were conducted through the warship, the feminine portion being especially interested in the massive guns and the delicate machinery with which they were moved and fired. The captain's cabin was one of the interesting retreats. The visitors were there shown relics of the Incas recently discovered in a cave in Peru. One was a stone statuette, and another was a peculiar belt of seeds, a portion of which was composed of Job's tears. The relics are several centuries old.

Through the courtesy of Governor Carter the Hawaiian band played during the reception on the main deck, and the guests were given an opportunity to dance on the quarter deck.

Governor Carter, accompanied by Hon. C. L. Crabbe, the President of the Senate, and Senator Achi, as his staff, and also by Robert N. Boyd, a former officer in the Italian navy, was met at the gangway by the cruiser's captain and a guard of marines who presented arms. Governor Carter offered his congratulations to the captain complimentary to the Queen Dowager, the captain toasting the President and the United States in return.

Among those present besides Governor Carter were Italian Consul and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, the Misses Schaefer, French Consul and Mrs. Raas, Admiral Terry, U. S. N., Captain White, U. S. N., Captain Rodman, U. S. N., Senator Crabbe, Senator Achi, Captain Douglass, U. S. A., Mrs. Douglass, Lieut. Behr, U. S. A., Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke, Mrs. Lanz, Mrs. Walbridge, Miss Pfleger, Miss Alice Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Paton.

FREAK OF SEA OFF PUNALUU

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived yesterday morning from Hawaii and Maui ports. The remains of Col. W. H. Cornwell, accompanied by his widow and daughter, Mrs. A. A. Braymer, were brought from Lahaina.

A report of activity in Mokuaweoweo crater came by the steamer. Volumes of smoke could be seen from Punaluu pouring from the crater last Tuesday, and it was seen that Pohakulanalei on the Kona side was also sending up smoke. On last Tuesday morning increased activity was apparent as a big cloud of smoke suddenly rose from Mokuaweoweo. During the forenoon, while the Mauna Loa was lying off Punaluu, the water began to boil and churn, and the marine phenomenon was witnessed by the entire crew. Captain Simerson states that the peculiar disturbance was something he had never before seen. A gale was blowing at the time, when cross seas unexpectedly appeared. So sudden was the disturbance that a boat lying in the water at the steamer's side was capsized, and the boat's crew was thrown into the water. The sailors were pulled aboard the steamer by ropes thrown out to them. Fifteen minutes later the sea calmed down and resumed its former functions.

All on board attributed the strange marine freak to volcanic activity, connecting it with the sudden discharge of smoke from the craters.

ENGINEER SAVED A PASSENGER

The Ke Au Hou, which arrived yesterday from Kauai, met with such rough weather in Kauai channel that a Portuguese woman was almost washed overboard. Chief Engineer Gardner saved the woman as she was swept by a sea toward the rail. He was also washed along, his head striking a stanchion, almost rendering him unconscious. He held on to the woman, however, and prevented a tragedy. Captain Tullett thereupon ordered all passengers into the cabins. The latter were flooded while the steamer headed into the sea.

MUST BID FOR TRANSPORT COAL

The War Department will advertise for bids for furnishing coal for transports in Honolulu. Captain Williamson has received no definite information as to this but expects the call for tenders to come very soon.

The next transport from San Francisco will probably not get here until about the eighth of December. Only one transport a month now leaves San Francisco, sailing on the first. The Manila transport leaves on the fifteenth of every month.

At present, temporary orders are that transports shall stop in Honolulu both coming and going, and the permanency of the order will depend upon the price of coal in Honolulu. The present agreement with the Merchants' Association is not satisfactory to the War Department and a new contract must be made.

A Lucky Find.

Great excitement prevailed at the fish market early this morning, when a monster shark, the largest ever seen here, was brought in by some Jap fishermen, who immediately proceeded to cut the carcass up. The dorsal fin of the sea monster, measured nearly seventy-two inches, and will be presented to the Bishop Museum. But the bystanders nearly went wild when upon opening the stomach of the shark a variety of ship's instruments and sailors' clothes were found, upon examining the lining of the stomach there were also found several cards explaining the merits of the Douglass Patent Closet, sold by Bath the Plumber, and guaranteed against leakage, and the annoyance of running water. CENTRAL UNION CADETS ENTERTAIN

A very pretty entertainment was given last evening at the Y. M. C. A. hall for the benefit of the Central Union cadets. The audience was not large but made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

The program was varied and interesting. The opening number, an instrumental trio, "Anona" (by Mabel McKinley) by the two Misses and Master Ball was much appreciated. The young people played exceedingly well and were heartily applauded. They repeated their success in a later selection.

The club swinging by F. C. Atherton was very clever and graceful. In response to a hearty encore Mr. Atherton gave an exhibition of club swinging with fiery clubs. Miss May Paty followed with a reading which also won much applause.

The cadet drill under Captain O'Donnell was interesting. The boys executed the marches and setting up exercises well, although they had but three hours' training, as explained by the drill master.

Miss Lauke's piano solos were very creditably executed. Mrs. Agatha Cook's vocal solos were very well received as was the vocal duet by Mrs. Damon and Mrs. Hare.

Allan Dunn delighted and amused the audience with his reading of "The Bishop and the Caterpillar" and he was compelled to respond, reciting "To Wed or Not to Wed."

Mrs. Atwood played "Polonaise," from Chopin, exceedingly well. The program was closed by a trio with violin obligato. Mrs. Damon, Mrs. Hare and Miss Whitney sang "When on My Couch Reclining" and Miss Koepke played the violin accompaniment.

FAMILIAR NAMES.

"Wagg—Acquainted with the Zeen family?"

"Snagg—Zeens? Never heard of 'em. 'You have met the young folks, haven't you—Ben and Maggie? Ben Zeen works in a clothes-cleaning establishment. Maggie Zeen is literary and—"

"Ah, yes—I recall them now. They live down there opposite the Leens. Know the Leen girls?"

"Good industrious girls—Annie and Pearl. Annie Leen is employed in a dye house, and Pearl Leen works in a laundry. Then there's—"

"Nay, nay, Paul Leen don't work in any more of the family on me. Come, I'll pay for the drinks."

KEPOIKAI STILL STICKS TO OFFICE

There is nothing later in the Treasurership deadlock than the fact that Mr. Kepoikai still refuses to resign the office. Governor Carter yesterday sent the following reply to the Treasurer's midnight communication:

"Honolulu, November 20, 1903.

"A. N. Kepoikai, Esq., Honolulu.
"Dear Sir:—In your official letter as Treasurer, addressed to me as Acting Governor, and delivered at my house at 1 o'clock in the morning of the 19th inst., you evidently intend to make the issue one of veracity between ourselves, and leave it to public opinion.

"For some time I have made it a habit to dictate the substance of important interviews immediately upon their conclusion, while the matter is fresh in my mind and before circumstances change.

"This memorandum shows that my first interview with you was on Oct. 31, and that I asked you point blank if it was satisfactory for you to put in your resignation, and you replied, 'Certainly.' You also said that you knew it was in accordance with American custom and precedent.

"My second interview was on Nov. 2d, the day before Mr. Baldwin left. Of this I have no memorandum, but you may remember my asking if I could depend on your statement, and your words, as near as I can recollect, were: 'Yes, I'll resign all right, but I am going to pack my trunk for Maui first.' Very truly yours,
(Signed) "GEORGE R. CARTER."

BY AUTHORITY. Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The President of the United States having appointed Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of praise and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, it is our duty as loyal American Citizens to join upon that day in thanking God for His goodness to us in the past and in beseeching Him to continue and extend to us His mercies in the future.

While in our early experience with a Republican form of Government we should pray for strength and guidance to wisely, honestly and fearlessly perform the duties of citizenship, and uphold the privileges already accorded to this Territory by the United States of America.

Our rejoicings on this day of Thanksgiving should be accompanied by a sense of grave duty that will enable us to show, in the years to come, that the responsibility which has been given us shall not have been misplaced.

NOW THEREFORE, I, George R. Carter, Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, hereby recommend that all our people do, on Thursday, the 26th day of November next, render thanks unto Almighty God in their homes, and at their places of worship, that they cease from all manner of work and toil and make the day one of praise and Thanksgiving.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Seal of the Territory to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in the City of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, this 20th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-eighth.
